Numb. 7641.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 1. to Tuesday October 4. 1737.

Petersbourg, September 10.

THE 8th Instant, Vice Admiral Sinavin set out from hence to go to Oczakow, to take on him the Command of the Flotilla or little Boats that went down the River Nieper this Year: It is said they are to winter at Oczakow. Twenty Nine Sea Officers, and Eight Hundred Seamen are to follow Vice Admiral Sinavin in a very few Days. This looks as if the Russians were resolved to have every Thing ready to attack the Enemies early in the Spring, in Case a Peace is not concluded this Winter. The three Regiments of Foot Guards have exercised this Week before her Czarish Majesty, and next Week the Horse Guards, and the Cadets, are to do the like.

Dresden, Oct. 2, N. S. By Letters from Niemeroff of the 10th past, we have Advice, that the Russians had razed the Fortifications of Oczakow, except the Citadel and Castle, and that they will leave there only 3000 Men; for, to have garrisoned the whole, would have taken up 10000 Men. The Saxon Officers who are lately arrived from the Imperial Army in Hungary, affirm, that that Army is diminished to half the Number it was at the Beginning of the Campaign.

Hague, Oct. 11, N. S. Count Uhlfeld has received from Vienna his Instructions upon the last Resolution of the States relating to Bergues and Juliers, but the Marquess de Fenelon is not yet ready to concur with him for communicating the same to the States, wanting still the Answer from his Court. His Excellency Mr. Walpole returned last Night from Breda, where the Duke of Aremberg was expected by the Prince of Orange. M. Vander Meer arrived here from Madrid with his Family on the 9th Instant.

Hampton-Court, October 3.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint James Oglethorpe, Esq; to be Colonel of a Regiment of Foot to be raised for the Service of his Majesty's Plantations in America.

Admiralty Office, September 13, 1737.

The Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, intending to distribute some Relief to the Widows whose Husbands died before the 30th of August, 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment; these are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places abovementioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And they are desired to bring or send their Certificates, or Affidavits, to the said Office before the 5th Day of November next.

Victualling Office, Sept. 28, 1737.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, give Notice, That on Wednesday the 19th of October next, in the Forenoon, they shall be ready to receive Proposals and treat with such Persons as are inclinable to furnish Oxen and Hogs at the Ports of London, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Dover, for the Service of his Majesty's Navy.
